JAMES STONE'S DEATH.—James Stone went to his stable Monday morning and fed his horse preparatory to going to Mt. Sterling. Returning to the house he sank down at the front door and made a noise that alarmed Harburtown, living in the house. Mr. Sturgill went to his assistance and helped him to bed. He died a few minutes before seven o'clock. He had not been feeling well for several days, but his sudden death was a shock to the community.

The funeral was held at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning, at the Owensville Cemetery, after service at the home by Elder W. H. Pennington, pall-bearers—J. N. Nohr, Robert L. Zimmerman, W. H. Daugherty, Joseph Dawson, Geo. T. Young, Bacon Turgill, R. J. Goodpastor, John Gillon.

James Stone was born Nov. 9, 1823, and was reared on Bald Eagle Creek, this county. He was a settler of the family. After his brothers and sisters were married, James came to this town and engaged in the livery stock business for several years. In the latter years of his life he was connected with the Owensville Market & Grain Warehouse. He was well married, his first wife being M. Conner, a sister of Harburtown, the Circuit Clerk, and Mr. John A. Tarter. There were several children. His second wife was Miss Ann Burbridge, daughter of Jack Burbridge. He died a few years ago. Deceased nearest relatives are nephews and nieces.

James Stone was a widely known man and had friends everywhere he was known. He was a shrewd business man and always had a share of trade in any occupation engaged in. Being a cheerful and jovial disposition, his company was sought and enjoyed by congenial spirits. He will be missed and sincerely mourned by a wide circle of friends.

Elder T. N. Arnold, of Frankfort, was here Saturday as a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Superintendent of Public Instruction. On Sunday he occupied the pulpit of the Christian Church.

"SMOKING OUT A TOBACCO"—One day last week some fellows tried an experiment under an old log house on John A. Tarter's farm on Flat Creek. In trying to smoke out the "possum" the building was set on fire and burned. The possum was captured.

HELD OVER TO CIRCUIT COURT.—The "Champion" charged with robbing the new house of Adam Bonner, on East Fork, was tried in Judge Daugherty's Court Thursday and was held over to Circuit Court, failing to give the bond of $200 he was set to jail.

"A BROTHER IN WOLF CO.—Denny Swin, wanted on the charge of putting up and sounding bug call, arrived here on a visit Tuesday afternoon at near Harburtown, was arrested by Sheriff John Allen and Dr. H. Clark at Lee City, Wolfe county, and brought by them and lodged in jail here Friday night.

JUNIOR SUPERINTENDENT.—All the children who are now members of the Junior Endeavor, or who have been members, or who may desire to become members, are urged to request a ticket at 3 o'clock p. m. Sunday in the Christian Church. Business of special importance.

JUNIOR SUPERINTENDENT.—Mrs. Alex. Conner, of this place, has just been appointed Junior Superintendent of the Y. P. C. E. of this district, composed of the counties of Bath, Montgomery, Clark, Powell, Hartwood, Harrison, Nicholas, Madison and Menifee, and will assume the duties of said office at once. Miss Frances W. Hill, of Paris, is the Secretary.

ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.—A telephone message from Farmers Tuesday morning states that Clarence Myers, aged 31, attempted to commit suicide Monday night by shooting himself through the head with a revolver. He is in a dangerous condition, but may recover. When asked for a reason for his act Mr. Myers stated that he had married a girl who did not love and could not live with her.

Six months ago Myers and Miss Martha McCarty were married. They separated in a short time and were divorced. Recently they became reconciled and were married again.

MR. STURTEVANT COURT DASH.—There was only about 200 cattle on the Mt. Sterling market Monday and they were extremely high. The best beef sold at 4 to 4 1/2; 85 head 2-year-olds at 3 to 3 1/2; 100 head 3-year-olds at 3 to 3 1/2. A good many mules and horses changed hands at high prices.

T. S. Shurt sold a horse for $110 and sold a pair of mules for $325.

Sam Latham sold a horse for $100 and bought one for $100.

Geo. C. Clark bought a mare for $75.

John L. Vico sold a pair of mules for $325.

Mrs. Hendrix sold a pair of 3-year-old horses for $250.

John Tischer bought a mule for $125.

SUFFERED THE LIES.—The Landon case was tried in Judge Daugherty's Court Wednesday and Thursday of last week. The late George Landon, of near Wyoming, left his estate, consisting of 130 acres of land and personally together amounting to about $100,000, in trust to his only two grand-children, Mrs. Eva Cary of Georgetown, Ill., and Lucy Landon, the guardian of the latter being Kelle K. Saunders, of Hillsboro. Wm. C. Jackson was named as trustee. In case they died without issue the estate was to go to Ruth Conner. The two heirs brought suit to have the will set aside. A large number of witnesses were examined in the case.
